

TeacherTube and Other Web 2.0 Resources

CCEA – Region 2 Meeting

February 25, 2009

Tony Lederer

Calvine High School

CALVINE

- Internet based video site Flash 9.0 format
- Real Time Availability
  - Staff Professional Development
  - Curriculum Research
  - Content matter delivery in class
- Web Site Embeddable

- Internet based presentation archive
- Real Time Availability
  - Staff Professional Development
  - Curriculum Research
  - Content matter delivery in class
    - Either from Web, or download with pertinent changes for classroom delivery, professional development activities.
  - Demonstrate Student Learning!

- Blog: Regular Internet based site with entries of commentary, descriptions of events, or other material such as graphics or video.
- Dedicated to showcasing student writing assignments on any curricular topic. Enhances writing and technology skills.
- Over 100 student writing assignments completed 07-08

Moneywiseteen.org

- Provided by The California Council on Economic Education, with a goal of helping students become successful participants in the global economy.
- Flash movies supported with lesson plans and worksheets.
- Meets California Curriculum Standards Business Finance and Econ 12 courses.

- Extremely wide range of video in all curricular areas.
- Academic, clips from feature length movies.
- Blocked by most districts, EGUSD work around
- Various free software available for downloading YouTube videos for classroom use.

CALVINNE

- Short video clips more effective than feature length films
- Readily available, computer format, high quality sound
- “10.4 Students analyze patterns of global change in the era of New Imperialism in at least two of the following regions or countries: Africa, Southeast Asia, China, India, Latin America, and the Philippines.”

Web 2.0

- Online communicative technologies can support and contribute to all aspects of increased academic participation and student learning while reinforcing technology skills for the future.