

Library Lovers

Library News
September 2008

Our fall Book Fair was a huge success thanks to parents, students, and staff members. A special thanks goes out to Mrs. Kobelt and her volunteers Kathleen Ochoa, Nancy Harris, Dina Ligh, Tina Jones, Lisa Wilson, Rhonda Lim, Janet Shoop, Lynne Jantzen, Cathy Medigovich, Sue Barnhart, and Christine Anderson for spending their time helping Kerr's students and the library.

Movie Night is back Thursday, October 2nd 3:30-5:00 in the library! Come watch a free movie and win some prizes! Popcorn, drinks, and treats will be for sale.

Pizza Reading Express begins in October. Read 4 books from different genres, turn in a signed participation sheet, and be invited to a pizza lunch in the library. Win fabulous prizes!

Book Club begins Wednesday, Sept. 24th. Students should bring their lunch to the library.

Chess Club begins soon! Students should listen to the bulletin for more info!

Students have until September 30th to bring textbooks to the library that have damage not documented on the barcode page of their book. Students will be responsible for any damages not documented by library staff, so check those textbooks over carefully!

Students leaving textbooks in teachers' rooms are responsible for theft, damages, or loss. Teachers are not responsible for students' textbooks nor the return of textbooks at the end of the year.

