- Attention Juniors: The applications for the June Online Intercession Program (formerly known as summer school) are available beginning Thursday in the counseling office. This will be the only free credit recovery option available to students this summer. The only courses offered will be English 9, English 10, English 11, World History and U.S. History. If you have failed any of these classes, they are graduation requirements and the credits must be made up in order for you to graduate on time next June. The seats available for this online course are extremely limited and will be awarded to those students who return the required paperwork to the counseling office on a first-come, first-served basis. Current juniors will have priority over students in lower grade levels, provided they meet the paperwork deadlines. We will begin accepting completed applications in the counseling office Friday, May 7th. The deadline to complete and turn in paperwork will be Thursday, May 13th. Again, applications are available in the counseling office. If you have questions about your credit recovery needs, see your counselor during your lunch. Ward 5/12
- Are you interested in taking Honors math next year? Applications are now available from any math teacher and must be completed by May 17. Yee 5/11
- Aloha PIC! Today will be our last meeting! Be there!. We will be treating you to ice cream and we will hold officer elections. So if you are interested, in becoming a future officer, make sure to talk to one of the officers before the meeting! We look forward to seeing there! Cuccinello 5/7
