

The Elk Grove Unified School District in partnership with the Document Based Question Project, the National Archives and Records Administration, and the Constitutional Rights Foundation proudly presents:

DOING HISTORY

The American Citizen: A Study of Liberty and Rights Doing History Workshop Series

The Doing History Project is a content/application workshop series that is funded by EGUSD's new Teaching American History Grant, The American Citizen: A Study of Liberty and Rights. The Doing History Project will provide 48 hours of history professional development through a series of four Friday afternoon (4:00-8:00 p.m.), Saturday (8:00 a.m.-4:00 p.m.) workshop sessions. The workshops will teach strategies that are effective in a history classroom using the partners listed below. Participants will work in site teams to develop, implement, and assess a DBQ for classroom/district use by the end of the series. The workshop dates, topics and partner organization are listed below:

Date	Topic	History Organization
September 25-26, 2009	The DBQ Project Method	Document Based Question (DBQ) Project
November 6-7, 2009	Constitutional Court Cases	The National Archives and Records Administration
February 19-20, 2010	The DBQ Project: Assessment and effective use	Document Based Question (DBQ) Project
April 23-24, 2010	Principles of Democracy	The Constitutional Rights Foundation
May 14, 2010	Deadline for DBQ Lesson Submission

*All workshops will take place at the EGUSD District Office in room 111 or room 117.

** Dinner is served on Fridays and breakfast and lunch are served on Saturdays.

For specific questions about the Talking History Project, or the Teaching American History Grant, please contact Don Azevada in Curriculum and Professional Learning at 686-7757 x. 7644, or at dazevada@egusd.net