The complainant is advised of civil law remedies, including, but not limited to, injunctions, restraining orders, or other remedies or orders that may be available under state or federal discrimination, harassment, intimidation or bullying laws, if applicable.

Notwithstanding the process for written complaints, any individual who believes that he/she or another student or group has been subjected to unlawful discrimination may orally report the alleged discrimination to the involved student's teacher (or a teacher of a student in the alleged group), or to the principal, or to the principal's designee of the school site where the alleged discrimination occurred. The principal or principal's designee shall, in process of following up on the report, inform the individual making the report of the right to file a written complaint. If the individual making the oral report does not want to file a written complaint, does not want to be identified, or does not give names of the perpetrators, the school still may have a duty to respond in some way depending on the seriousness of the allegations and the risk of future harm to the student or others. However, the extent to which these concerns can be investigated and/or responded to may be limited given the lack of information made available to the District. The District's response to the oral reporting of concerns of unlawful discrimination shall follow the process set forth in the local UCP.

A copy of our UCP complaint policies and procedures is available free of charge and is available on the District's website at the following link:
