Project GROW initially funded during the 2013-14 school year, serves students at five Title 1 schools utilizing a three-tiered public mental health model that was designed to positively impact the learning environment with strategies that produce long-term, sustainable change. Barbara Comstock Morse, Charles E. Mack, Herman Leimbach, Samuel Kennedy and Union House Elementary Schools were identified for inclusion in the grant based upon recommendation from the EGUSD Division of Elementary Education, principal input, perceived need and data regarding the number of referrals for disciplinary action during the 2010-11 school year. The mission for this program is to create respectful, responsible and safe learning environments that support children’s social, emotional and mental health needs.

The report and video outlined Project GROW successes and the three tier model that is used:

Tier 1 - Positive Behavioral Interventions and Supports (PBIS).

Tier 2 - Project GROW Groups: Students who can benefit from instruction in activities that will enhance school adjustment, social competence, and leadership skills are considered for participation in Project GROW groups. Through GROW groups, students are taught strategies that research has shown to be effective in creating pro-social behavior.

Tier 3 - Intensive Services: Tier 3 supports children in need of intensive psychological counseling. Project GROW entered into service-level agreements with five community-based agencies that deliver individual and family counseling services or consulting services at the school sites. These agencies are the Child and Family Institute; La Familia Counseling Center; Hmong Women’s Heritage; WellSpace Health (formerly The Effort); and the Asian Pacific Counseling Center. The duration of service provided through the Community Partners is up to one year and, if warranted, a second year of service can be authorized. All five Community Partners participate in district sponsored Leadership Team meetings to ensure the greatest degree of collaboration with the district.

K-6 Mathematics Adoption: Exchange for HMH California Go Math Curriculum – Motion No. 40, 2015-16 – Ms. Jerrilyn Ewing reviewed and requested that the Board adopt and approve the purchase and exchange of the current EGUSD-adopted K-6 Go Math curriculum from the national version to the California version.
MINUTES OF THE REGULAR MEETING OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE ELK GROVE UNIFIED SCHOOL DISTRICT, NOVEMBER 3, 2015

In November of 2011 and December of 2012, the Board took action to adopt the K-2 and grades 3-6 national Go Math curriculum, respectively. Since that time, Houghton-Mifflin/Harcourt (HMH), the publisher of the curriculum, designed a version specifically for California that includes enhanced digital support and student assessments that are more closely aligned to the California Assessment of Student Performance and Progress (CAASPP) state testing.

EGUSD staff, consisting of the Curriculum and Professional Learning Director of Instructional Support, K-6 mathematics program specialist, and elementary teachers serving on the EGUSD K-6 Mathematics Steering Committee, conducted a thorough analysis of this opportunity through a three-pronged approach: 1.) similarities and differences of the content; 2.) fiscal analysis; and 3.) effect on the human condition. Through this analysis, it was determined that all three areas yielded positive outcome:

The total cost to transition to CA Go Math from the national version for five years will be approximately $1,512,000. Implementation would begin in 2016-17 and extend to 2020-21.
This figure is based upon projected student enrollments and teacher numbers and includes both student and teacher editions as well as online digital subscriptions for the five-year period.
Costs would be spread out over the next three fiscal years in installments of $350,000 in 2015-16; $500,000 in 2016-17; and $662,000 in 2017-18. These costs are greatly reduced from projected expenditures if EGUSD continued with the national version. Those costs would be approximately $979,000 in each of the same three fiscal years.

The multi-year instructional materials budget has been analyzed regarding this expenditure. The overall costs ($1,512,000) outweigh the alternative of staying with the national version ($2,937,000) saving EGUSD approximately $1,425,000 over the five year period.

Funds would come from the EGUSD Instructional Materials budget. The cost of these materials has been budgeted for in the multi-year instructional materials budget within the Curriculum and Professional Learning Department.

Motion by Ms. Chaires Espinoza, seconded by Mr. Perez, and carried unanimously by an affirmative vote of all members present that the adoption and approval to purchase and exchange of the current EGUSD-adopted K-6 Go Math curriculum from the national version to the California version be approved.
