V. Public Comment

Elisha McDonald, parent of a student from Florin High School, shared her concerns about events that occurred at her son’s school and at a meeting she attended with administration. Ms. McDonald stated that her son was bullied and that the site did not fully investigate.

Lilly Delaney spoke in support of Ms. McDonald and her son. She shared her own son’s experiences with bullying and the fear that he cannot defend himself. Ms. Delaney expressed her concerns that site administration feels that self-defense is considered mutual combat.

Jazz Kaur thanked the Board for having Franklin Elementary be the next school to be built. She also thanked the Superintendent for the personal touch in the letter that was sent out. She shared that she’s looking forward to seeing a timeline that can be shared with the Franklin community.

Allegra Taylor spoke in support of Ms. Cannon and her son and questioned how a student is accused then found guilty enough to go to court. She feels that the procedures that are claimed to be in place are not in place at the sites.

Leslie Cannon shared that her son has a court date and is in weekly therapy. She expressed her frustration with the school because the problems with her son’s schedule and how much time he has missed from class. Ms. Cannon asked why her son was not offered conflict resolution and why she was not offered mediation.

Lorreen Pryor shared her concerns about what Ms. Cannon’s son is going through. Ms. Pryor requested information about how SROs are trained, selected and their qualifications, and what
