Maria McClatchy requested that the District provide mental health awareness in all schools and look into more assistance for students.

Carol Massey requested that the District consider later start times for middle and high schools. She also asked that financial literacy be taught in high schools so that students can understand the importance of budgeting, investing and saving.

Barbara Harrington, Susan Mason, Sue Spillman, and Tony Sillman expressed their concerns about the content in the Pearson myWorld curriculum and requested that the Board not adopt it.

Barbara Harrington spoke about the negative atmosphere at the middle school and high school her children attend and would like to know what the District is doing to remedy some of the issues.
Rona Wilkins thanked Dr. Grewal for her sincere apology for what her son had gone through at his school. Ms. Wilkins requested a formal investigation take place at her son’s elementary school to look into acts of sexual misconduct perpetrated against students on campus as well as bullying and physical assault. Ms. Wilkins shared her concerns about the safety of students on campus when the back gate to the school is open at the end of the school day.

Lorreen Pryor requested information that includes the racial breakdown of students at COHS that get sent to OCI; who is sending them to OCI; the number of students who have been arrested and how often SROs are used for discipline on campus.

Dorothy Staulker requested that bullying and racial bias stop. Ms. Staulker thanked Dr. Grewal and shared her appreciation for her sincere apology for what her nephew endured at school.

Mae Loue shared her concerns about what the Wilkins family went through at their school. Ms. Loue asked that the District not consider privatizing schools. Ms. Loue also shared her concerns about the new curriculum and shared that young children aren’t old enough to register that type of information.

Chelsea Ligatone addressed the Board about a suspension she was given in September because of the way she reacted to her sister being removed from a dance by a security guard. She expressed her concerns about not being listened to and that the security guard was made out to be the victim.

Daisy Lopez addressed the Board for her brother who is being bullied at his high school. She stated that he doesn’t want to say anything to his teachers because he feels that nothing will be done to stop it. She is concerned for her brother because he’s depressed and bullied. Ms. Lopez requested help for her brother so that he can enjoy his senior year.

Lily Devaney shared her concerns about the fighting going on at COHS and about her son being threatened by a student. She also shared that her middle school student is targeted by a bully at school and asked what the District is doing to help the victims of bullying.

Randy Becker addressed the Board to express his alarm about the bullying going on at District schools and questioned if site administrators are engaged with students. Mr. Becker questioned why these situations keep coming up and suggested that site administrators be replaced if they aren’t doing their job. Mr. Becker requested that the mutual combat language also address bullying.

Michelle Perkins asked what that District is doing when the bullies are adults. Ms. Perkins shared information about an incident that occurred with her daughters while they attended a school dance. She stated that she requested information about the incident from the administrators on duty and has yet to receive it. Ms. Perkins thanked the Sherriff’s Department for immediately responding to her complaint.

Lezlie Cannon shared her reasons for removing her son from the school district and the pain it caused her son to go through that formality. Ms. Cannon informed the Board that the case was dismissed. Ms. Cannon requested policies and procedures pertaining to IEP students, homework, and information about the district’s SRO officers.
Michelle Anderson expressed her concerns about students who continue to be bullied and what is not being done to hold the bullies accountable. She informed the Board that her daughter is being bullied on a daily basis and asked that something be done immediately.

Shelly Nakagaki shared her negative experiences working with the site administrators at her son’s high school when she tried to get assistance because of bullying. Ms. Nakagaki expressed her concerns about her son losing credits when the site changed his lunch period that he shared with his bully. She requested that her son receive the credits he lost when this change was made.

Katherine Duran addressed the Board about the bullying issue at school sites and is concerned about what is being done to stop it. Ms. Duran informed the Board that she addressed the town hall meeting about the LGBTQ standards and stated that she does not approve of LGBTQ ideology curriculum being taught and after seeing the curriculum feels it is inappropriate for any child.

Dexter Powe shared his concerns about civilians portraying themselves as officers, the number of vehicle stops they have made and the citations they have issued.

Leticia Gilmore, organizer and cofounder of Black Parents United, shared information about the racial bias and injustice and unfair discipline of black students.

Charles Taylor expressed his concerns about the new policies not moving forward fast enough and requested equal and fair treatment of black students.

Activities for 2018 included the areas of Safety and Security, Arbinger Principles, Staff Recruitment and Retention, Measure M, Family and Community Engagement, GATE, Adult Education, Student Support and Health Services, Student Representatives and meeting with the Superintendent.

2. S.D. Bechtel, Jr. Foundation Grant Report: Math Generation – The Board received information about a report of the S.D. Bechtel, Jr. Foundation Grant - Math Generation - work in EGUSD. The Elk Grove Unified School District received a grant award from the S.D. Bechtel, Jr. Foundation starting in 2013. The grant afforded the District nearly six million dollars over a five-year period, ending in June of 2018. The purpose of the grant was to support and accelerate the implementation of the Common Core State Standards for mathematics (CCSS-M) in grades K-8.

EGUSD is one of ten districts throughout the state that received such funding in 2013. The other nine districts who received the grant are Dinuba, Garden Grove, Long Beach, Oakland, Oceanside, Sacramento City, San Francisco, Sanger, and Santa Ana. The competitive process began with a detailed survey of CCSS math implementation among all districts in California. We were among 27 districts invited by the S.D. Bechtel, Jr. Foundation to submit grant proposals. The S.D. Bechtel, Jr. Foundation looked to Elk Grove and the other nine districts to lead California’s implementation of CCSS-M and to assist other districts in implementation.
