

Eligible Users

The Elk Grove Unified School District utilizes the following classifications to define the user groups or individuals who may apply to use district facilities.

1. Fee Exempt User: School related organizations, clubs, and associations organized to promote school related activities. Examples of such groups include, but are not limited to, school clubs, school sports teams, student councils, parent teacher associations, and school community advisory councils.
2. Classification I: Non-profit organizations, clubs, and associations organized to promote youth and school activities (per Education Code 38134(a)), including organizations that arrange for and supervise sports league activities specifically for youths. The net receipts of admission fees or donations collected by these groups must be expended for the welfare of the pupils of the District or for charitable purposes. Examples of such groups include, but are not limited to, scouting organizations and clubs/associations formed for recreational, educational, political, economic, artistic, or moral activities of the public school districts.
3. Classification II: Non-profit organizations, as well as clubs and associations that do not specifically promote youth and school activities (per Education Code 38134(a)). The net receipts of admission fees or donations collected by these groups must be expended for the welfare of the pupils of the District or for charitable purposes. Examples of such groups include, but are not limited to, senior citizen organizations, fire and police departments, farmers' organizations, YMCA/YWCA, and other non-profit associations formed for recreational, educational, economic, artistic, or moral activities of district adult community members.
4. Classification III: Religious organizations (for the purposes of conducting religious services for temporary periods; refer to AR 1330 (c) item 13), all for profit organizations and organizations within classifications I and II where net receipts of admissions and/or donations are not expended for the welfare of the pupils of the district or for charitable purposes.
